Contents

Introduction 9

The Musical Life of 19th Century Prague as Reflected in the Locally Published Sheet Music 12

Period Reflections on Publishing Practise 22

The Production Techniques Used to Print Sheet Music in 19th Century Prague 29

The Sheet Music Publishers and Editors of 19th Century Prague 39

Marco Berra and his Contemporaries (the First Half of the 19th Century) 41

Emanuel Starý, Matice hudební, Fr. A. Urbánek and their Contemporaries (the Second Half of the 19th Century) 50

The Sheet Music Published in 19th Century Prague and Housed in the Collection at the Music Department of the National Library – the Exhibition Catalogue 57

Valuable Printed Music Dating from the Beginning of the 19th Century – Self-Published Works or Works Published with the Support of a Patron 58

The Printed Collections dating from the Beginning of the 19th Century 62

Sheet Music Produced Using Lithography 64

Sheet Music Produced Using Typography 69

Sheet Music Published by Marco Berra 70

Occasional Music for Entertainment 73

Dance Music for Balls Held on a Variety of Occasions 74

Dance Music – Natural Motifs 78

Dance Music – Prague Motifs 81

Prague as a Source of Inspiration – Virtuoso Salon Music 84

Military Music 85

Sheet Music Issued on the Significant Anniversaries of the Composers 87

Emanuel Starý's Publishing House 88

The Matice hudební Publishing House 91

Fr. A. Urbánek 93

The Bibliography 97

The Summary 103

The Index of Names 105